FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Early Voting Sites Still Open – Emergency Voting!

Pima County Recorder F. Ann Rodriguez announced that opportunities still exist to vote early, if a voter will have difficulty getting to the polls on Tuesday.

“For the convenience of voters who may not have been able to get to an early voting site during the work week or won’t be able to go to the polls on Tuesday, November 2nd, we will have emergency voting available this Saturday, October 30th at six different Early Voting Sites,” stated Ms. Rodriguez. “These sites are available throughout the metro area and in Sahuarita.” (please see list of early voting sites also attached.) On Monday, November 1st, the Downtown Recorder’s office will be open for emergency voting between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Any registered Pima County voter is welcome to cast their ballot at one of the early voting sites.

Voters who have not yet mailed their vote-by-mail ballots may also bring their voted ballot and signed affidavit to one of the Early Voting sites or the Recorder’s office on Saturday, October 30th or Monday, November 1st and drop it off. Poll locations will also accept vote-by-mail ballots with completed affidavits throughout the voting day on Tuesday (6 a.m. to 7 p.m.).

For more information, voters may log onto the Recorder’s office web site at www.recorder.pima.gov and click on “Early Voting Sites” to find a location that is convenient to you, or call the Pima County Recorder’s office at 740-4330. Recorder’s office staff will be available for phone calls on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday to answer voter questions.
