Pima County Recorder F. Ann Rodriguez announced that the Voter Registration office located at 115 North Church Avenue will be open on Saturday, October 4, 2008 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. to take phone calls, and to assist voters with registering to vote before the deadline on October 6, 2008. This is the opportunity for voters who need to come in and provide proof of citizenship by presenting a copy of their birth certificate, passport, or new citizenship certificate.

In addition, voters who have moved recently need to update their voter registration. "The first step towards voting in this Presidential Election is making sure you are properly registered," stated Ms. Rodriguez.

PLEASE NOTE: Early voting will not be available at this office on this day. This is for voter registration purposes only.

For more information, voters may call the Pima County Recorder's office at (520) 740-4330, or log onto recorder.pima.gov.
