FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Warning Issued by Pima County Recorder

Pima County Recorder F. Ann Rodriguez would like to warn individuals registering to vote to NOT allow anyone else to have their completed voter registration form other than the U.S. Post Office or someone that they personally know and trust. Completed voter registration forms contain a great deal of personal information regarding each voter, particularly when they include the proof of citizenship required by state law.

“There may be representatives from a campaign or a civic group that come to your door, and offer to mail your voter registration form for you,” stated Ms. Rodriguez. “There are legitimate organizations who want to assist voters. However, there may be some that are not legitimate, or who may not get your voter registration form to the Recorder’s Office.” There is a risk of identity theft when the forms are not promptly transmitted to the Recorder’s Office.

The best way to return your completed voter registration form is to mail it through the U.S. Postal Service. All registration forms are pre-addressed to the Recorder’s Office. You may also drop it off at either of the Recorder’s Office locations:

Downtown Office

Old Courthouse Building

115 North Church Avenue

Eastside Office

Gaslight Theater Complex

6920 East Broadway Boulevard, Suite D

For voters with an Arizona driver's license or an identification card issued by the Motor Vehicle Division since October 1, 1996, you can register to vote or submit changes to your voter registration online at the MVD website, www.servicearizona.com. This service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The MVD will transmit the form to the Recorder's Office electronically on the next business day.

"This is a 'Stranger Danger' warning," admitted Ms. Rodriguez. "Don't risk your vote or your identity, to someone you don't know."
