ARIZONA ID REQUIRMENTS FOR EARLY VOTING

The Arizona State Legislature requires Proof of Identification for citizens who vote at Early Voting Sites. Early voting begins today for the Arizona Democratic Presidential Preference Election.

“We are happy to offer the convenience and flexibility of Early Voting Sites to Pima County voters almost one month before Election Day,” says Pima County Recorder F. Ann Rodriguez. “Staff at Pima County Early Voting Sites will follow the new Arizona statute regarding Proof of Identification, so voters should be prepared and bring the appropriate ID.”

When a voter arrives at the Early Voting Site, the voter must present one form of identification from List #1 or two different forms of identification from List #2 or #3. Arizona statutes related to voter Proof of Identification are: A.R.S. § 16-579(A); A.R.S. § 16-542; A.R.S. § 16-549.

List #1 - Sufficient Photo ID including name and address (One Required)

- Valid Arizona driver license
- Valid Arizona non-operating identification card
- Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification
- Valid United States federal, state, or local government-issued identification

List #2 - Sufficient ID without a photograph that bears the name and address (Two Required)

- Utility bill of the elector that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election. A utility bill may be for electric, gas, water, solid waste, sewer, telephone, cellular phone, or cable television
- Bank or credit union statement that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election
- Valid Arizona Vehicle Registration
- Indian census card
- Property tax statement of the elector's residence
- Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification Arizona vehicle insurance card
- Recorder's Certificate
- Valid United States federal, state, or local government-issued identification, including a voter registration card issued by the County Recorder
- Any mailing to the elector marked “Official Election Material”

List #3 - Mix & Match from Lists #1 & #2 (Two Required)

- Any valid photo identification from List 1 in which the address does not reasonably match the precinct register accompanied by a non-photo identification from List 2 in which the address does reasonably match the precinct register
- U.S. Passport without address and one valid item from List 2
- U.S. Military identification without address and one valid item from List 2

The Proof of Identification requirements are the same for voters who vote at polling places on Election Day and voters who vote at Emergency Voting Sites.

Voters may vote early at all three Pima County Recorder's locations, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, February 19 – March 13, 2020.
