FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Pima County Voter I.D. Cards Are in the Mail

Today, the Pima County Recorder mailed Voter Identification Cards to every registered voter in Pima County. Voters should receive their Voter I.D. card in the next few days. It says "Official Election Mail" in red ink on outside of the card. The Recorder's Office mails these cards to test address accuracy.

"We encourage voters to open the card immediately and check to make sure all information is correct," says F. Ann Rodriguez, Pima County Recorder. "The card contains the voter name, voter I.D. number, political party, address, and other information." If information is incorrect, voters may call the Recorder's Office at 520-724-4330 to speak to a staff member. Some voters may be directed to <https://www.servicearizona.com/VoterRegistration> to update their information. Voters who have received a Voter I.D. card within the last month will not receive a second card in this mailing.

The I.D. card also shows the voter's precinct, Congressional District, State Legislative District, School District, and City and Town ward information.

The Voter I.D. card, together with another valid form of identification, may serve to identify a voter at a polling location or Early Voting Site. Voters may call 520-724-4330 for more information, or email webmaster@recorder.pima.gov.
