FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Options for Registering to Vote Today

Some users are reporting problems with Arizona's central voter registration system at www.servicearizona.com. Today is the deadline to register to vote in the August 4, 2020, Primary Election. The Pima County Recorder suggests other options. Voters may print a voter registration form found on the Pima County Recorder website:

https://www.recorder.pima.gov/Docs/Voter_registration_fillable_form.pdf

After signing and dating it July 6, 2020, voters MUST do the following by the end of today, Monday, July 6:

- Mail the signed and dated voter registration form today
- Scan or photograph the signed and dated voter registration form and email it to: voter@recorder.pima.gov
- Fax the signed and dated voter registration form to: 520-623-1785
- Bring the signed and dated voter registration form to the Recorder Offices which are open until 7:00 P.M. tonight.

The Recorder's Offices are located downtown at 240 N. Stone, and on the east side at 6920 E Broadway Blvd., Suite D.

Paper registration forms are also available at public libraries, post offices, and the Recorder's offices.

Voters may call the Recorder's Office with questions or to check their voter registration 520-724-4330, or go to www.recorder.pima.gov.
