Beware of Voter Registration Intimidation

The Recorder's office has received complaints about individuals harassing people about voter registration in commercial areas.

These individuals have Arizona voter registration forms and are providing false information to people. They are also using intimidation tactics to scare people into providing private information on the voter registration form—walk away from them.

“The Recorder's office is the trusted source of information for voter registration,” says Pima County Recorder F. Ann Rodriguez. “Check with our office at 520-724-4330, if you have any concerns about your voter registration.” You may also check your voter registration status online at: <https://recorderwebpublicalt.recorder.pima.gov:38822/VoterStats/VoterInfo> .

Ms. Rodriguez continues, “The Recorder's office does NOT do registrations outside of our office, individuals in the plaza or sidewalk with registration forms do not work for our office.”
