FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Two Additional Early Voting Sites Open

The Recorder's Office is seeing record numbers of voters dropping off their Early Ballot. To date the office has sent out over 500,000 ballots by mail. Over 4,000 voters have voted at our Early Voting Sites since the sites opened on Wednesday, October 15.

In addition to the three Recorder's offices that opened on October 7, 2020 for early voting, two additional sites opened today, October 15, 2020. These sites are full service. Voters may vote at any Early Voting Site, regardless of their residential address, update their address and drop off their mailed ballot inside the locations. Voters must bring appropriate identification in order to. Voting booths are set up at all Early Voting Sites.

Additional sites Opening October 15, 2020:

- Pima County Parks and Recreation 3500 W River Road
- Woods Library 3455 N 1st Ave, Tucson

Recorder's offices:

- Downtown 240 N. Stone, first floor (downtown)
- Eastside 6920 E. Broadway, Suite D
- Southside (Airport area) 6550 S. Country Club
