UA Campus Gets Ballot Drop Box and Early Voting Site for Nov. 3 General Election

In a significant improvement to voter accessibility, the University of Arizona Campus will have a 24/7 Ballot Drop Box and an Early Voting Site for the Nov. 3 General Election.

The Ballot Drop Box is open now until 7 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, November 3. It is located at the Student Union at 1303 E University Blvd, next to the Bank of America ATM on the southeast corner of the Union. (See map below.)

All eligible Pima County voters near the UA Campus - including students, campus employees and nearby residents - can drop off their mail ballots 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The drop box is for Pima County ballots only. If you have a ballot from another county or state, please mail your ballot back to your local jurisdiction. Ballots from other jurisdictions will be forwarded by mail to the appropriate office, but that creates an unnecessary delay.

There are now nine Ballot Drop Boxes available throughout Pima County. (See list below.)

The UofA Early Voting Site will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., October 26-29, and will also be in the Student Union, in the third-floor Santa Cruz Room. On Friday, October 30, the site will be open until 7 p.m. We will be open for Emergency Voting from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Halloween, October 31, and Monday, November 2.

The voting site will NOT be open on Election Day. However, a Vote Center scheduled for the United Methodist Church at 915 E Fourth St is within walking distance of the Student Union and will be open 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, November 3. A full list of Election Day Vote Centers can be found at pima.vote.

Please note: Free parking is not available at these locations, which are intended for campus foot traffic.

Visit our Early Voting Sites page for times, dates and locations for Early Voting Sites, Ballot Drop Boxes and Votemobile appearances.
