Walk-In Early Voting Sites Open This Saturday!

Pima County Recorder F. Ann Rodriguez would like to remind voters that there are TEN (10) walk-in early voting sites open around Tucson and surrounding areas

Many of the early voting sites in metropolitan Tucson area will be opened this Saturday November 3, 2012 for emergency voting. These early voting sites are:

- ◆ The Recorder's Office in Downtown Tucson, Old Pink County Court House
- ◆ The Recorder's East Side Office located at Broadway and Kolb
- ◆ North Side located in a modular in the parking lot of the YWCA located at Shannon and Thornydale area
- ◆ Mid-Town, Sacred Heart Church located at Fort Lowell and First Ave
- ◆ South Side Recorder's Office at Valencia and Country Club

All of these early voting sites will be open on Saturday, November 3, 2012 from 9:00 a.m. until 2 p.m. (Please see list of early voting sites attached.) The only site opened for emergency voting on Monday, November 5, 2012 will be the Pima County Recorder's main office at 115 North Church Avenue. "After that, voters will need to go to their assigned polling location to vote the day of the Election," said Ms. Rodriguez.

Ms. Rodriguez would like to remind voters to never give their voted early ballot to a stranger to deliver it to our office or the post office. In addition, the latest anyone should place their voted early ballot in the mail to return to the Recorder's Office is Friday, November 2nd, as your ballot must be in the Recorder's possession by Election Day, Tuesday, November 6th.

For more information, voters may log onto the Recorder's office web site at www.recorder.pima.gov and click on "Early Voting Sites" to find a location that is convenient to you, or call the Pima County Recorder's office at 724-4330. Recorder's office staff will be available for phone calls on Saturday, 11/3/12 until 2 p.m.

For information about polling place ID requirements, please contact the Pima County Division of Elections at (520) 724-6830, or visit their web site at www.pima.gov/elections.
